

ANTS EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR AWARD

Nomination Form

Nominee: (Full Name)		ANTS Mbr No:
Address:
Institution: (include department / school/university or health facility)
Phone:		Email:
Signature:			Date:

Rules of Entry:

- Nominees must be current financial members of ANTS (Category 1 or 2) and need to have been members for more than 2 years.
- Nominees must hold Registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA).
- Nominees must demonstrate related employment in a teaching role within an Australian health facility or organisation. (eg, tertiary, acute, or community).
- Nominations must be submitted using the Nomination Form in this document, with all details completed.
- Nominations to be received by no later than 5:00pm on the day applications close.
- The teaching being evaluated must have taken place during the previous three years.
- All materials should be submitted in electronic form by email to: office@ants.org.au
- The judges' decision is final and they reserve the right not to make an award if the criteria are not met.
- No correspondence will be entered into.
- The winner will have a profile published in the ANTS eBulletin.
- The winner may be requested to be available for publicity purposes.

Nominations must include:

- A completed nomination form.
- A statement from the nominee addressing the selection criteria.
- A curriculum vitae of no more than four (4) A4 pages outlining the nominee's current position, educational qualifications, career history, teaching positions and teaching experience.
- One reference (of no more than two (2) A4 pages) provided by a person able to comment on the nominee's educational role.
- Supporting evidence, such as:
  - Students and/or staff testimonials.
  - Results of evaluations.
  - Online resource links.
- Submissions plus supporting documentation must not be more than 10 A4 pages.

Selection Criteria:

- Demonstrate a significant contribution to the education of Nurses or Midwives.
- Ability to organise innovative course material and resources and to present these cogently and imaginatively.
- Command of subject matter, including the incorporation into teaching of recent developments in a specific field.
- Provision of appropriate assessment, including the provision of feedback.
- Provision of appropriate evaluation and reflection.
- Participation in professional activities and research relating to teaching.

Submission: Please submit form and supporting evidence via email to office@ants.org.au