Presentation Highlights

Andrew Horabin – Keynote Speaker and Master of Ceremonies

Andrew Horabin is a professional speaker, facilitator, author, comedian, award-winning singer/songwriter and creator of the hugely successful "Mick the Demotivational Speaker".

Over twenty years, he has worked with big and small business, Government departments, local councils, professional associations and NGO's across Australia and overseas – with groups and audiences totaling hundreds of thousands of people.

He has trained state, federal and international police, including undercover officers, surveillance operatives, informant handlers, intel analysts and senior managers of serious crime – working with police from 40 countries.

Colin Ovington – Keynote Speaker

Colin joined the Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust in June 2010 from Bedford Hospitals NHS Trust where he was Executive Director of Nursing and patient services at Bedford, and executive lead for infection prevention.

Prior to this, he spent fifteen months as infection control turnaround director for NHS London and eight years at Queens Medical Centre in Nottingham, including three years as Director of Nursing, overseeing the merger of Queens, University Hospital and Nottingham City Hospital to create the new Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust.

Colin began his training as a State Registered Nurse (SRN) in Cumbria in 1979. He worked in medicine and coronary care before moving to Leeds and specialising in Paediatric and neonatal intensive care.
